

DNA and Personalized Medicine: Being part of the big picture

Ever wonder what your DNA could tell you?

Do you want your DNA to be part of scientific discovery?

This easy to understand presentation will discuss DNA, public participation in scientific research, and the issues that need to be addressed

Guest Speakers

Dr. George Church

Personal Genome Project, Harvard Medical School

Carolyn Abraham

Medical Reporter, The Globe and Mail

Helen Stevenson

Assistant Deputy Minister, and Executive Officer, Ontario Public Drug Programs, Ontario Ministry of Health and Long-Term Care

Dr. Shane K. Green

Program Director, Ethics, Social Impact and Outreach, Ontario Genomics Institute

A reception with light refreshments will follow.

Friday, November 16, 2007

6:00 PM

JJR MacLeod Auditorium

1 King's College Circle
(University of Toronto)

TTC: Queen's Park Subway

This event is FREE - seating is limited - please register by email to: contact@populargenetics.ca

This is a Popular Genetics educational event

www.populargenetics.ca